

Summer Reading

For

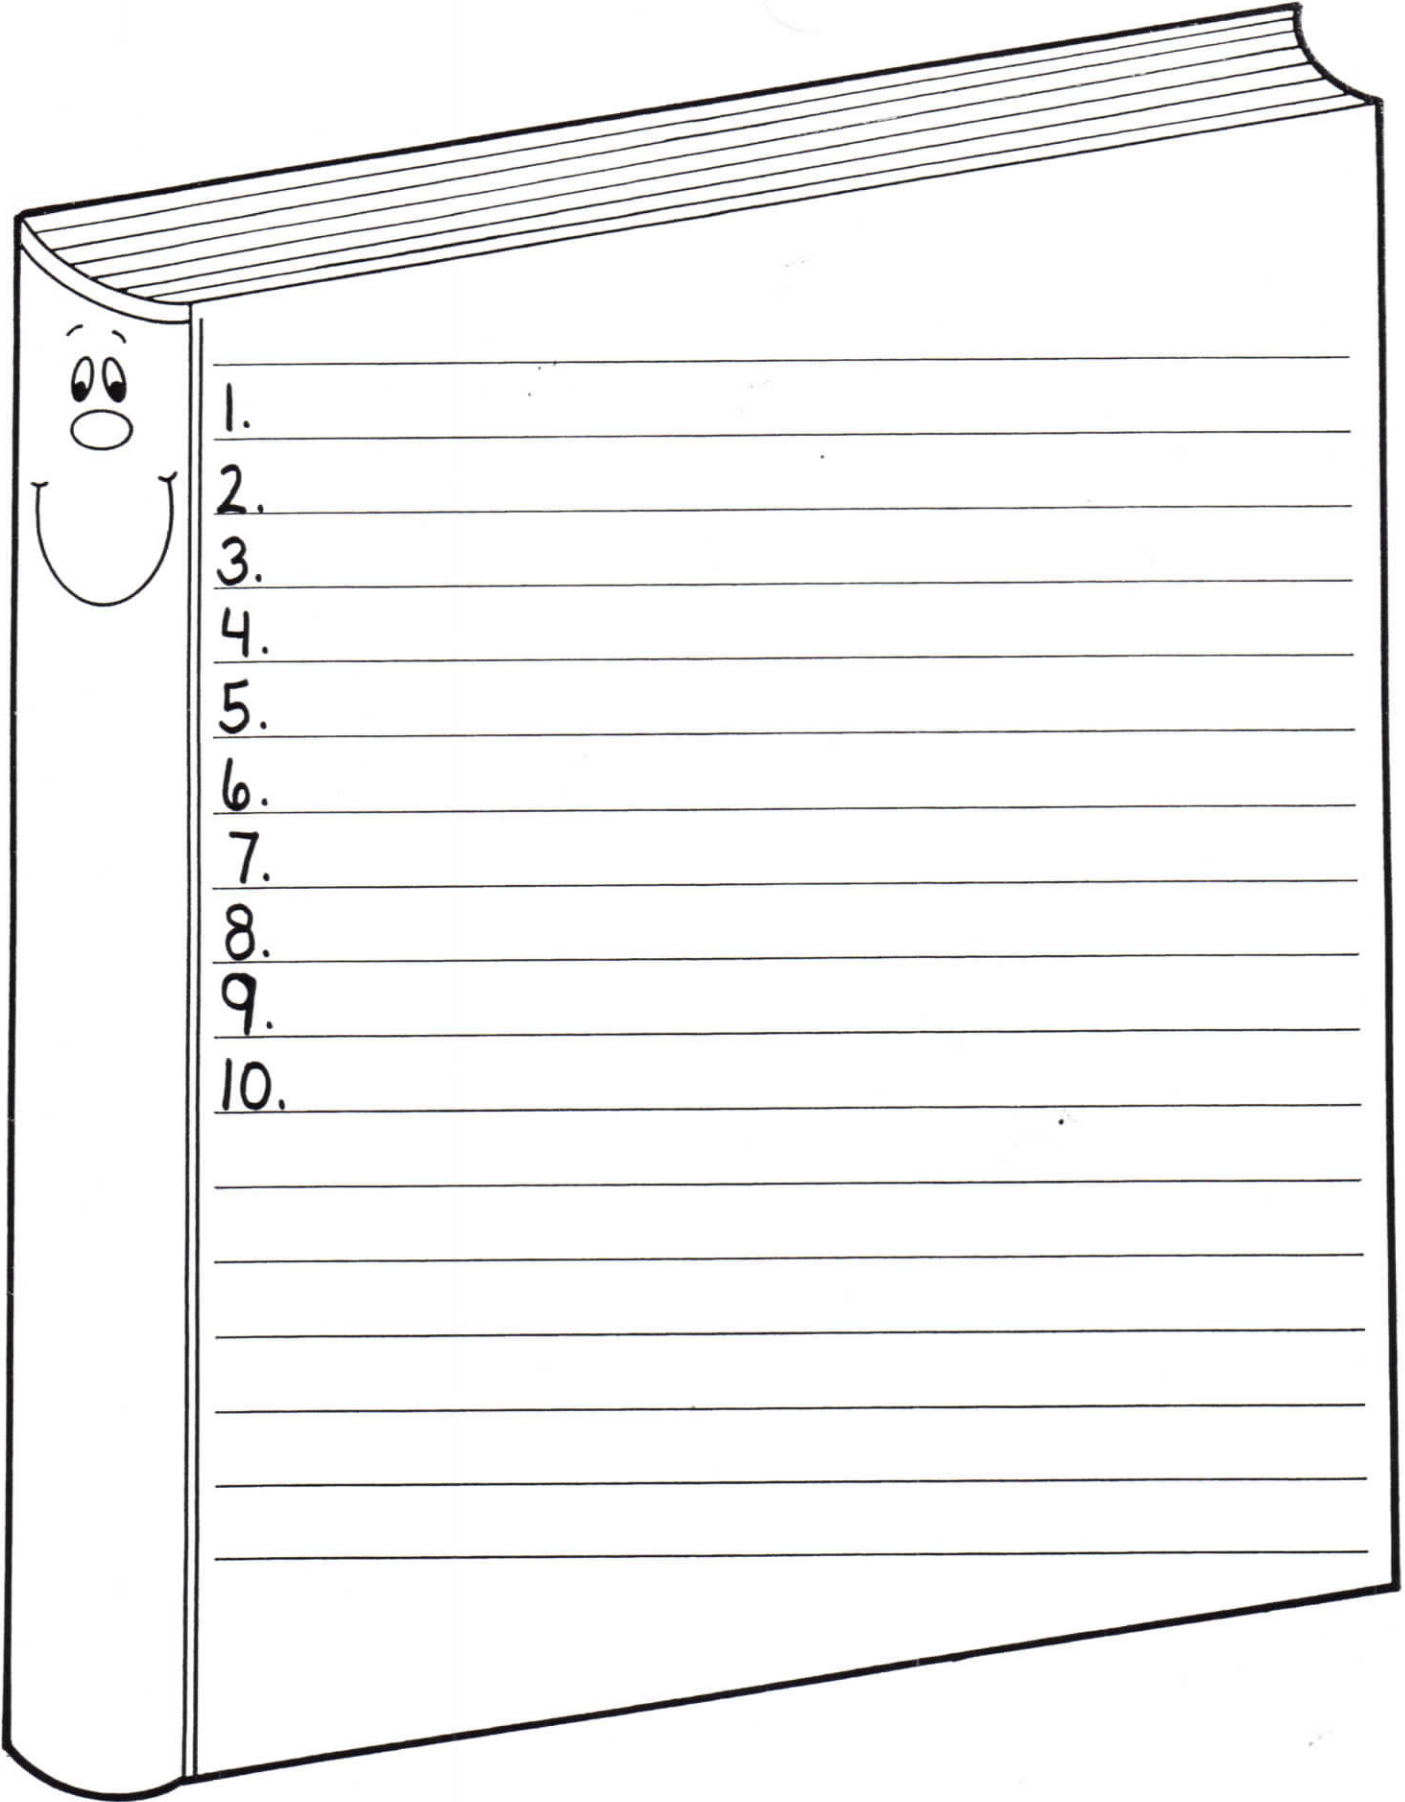

First Grade

Students entering first grade are required to read a minimum of 10 books over the summer.

These books may be read independently or with the help of an adult. The library is a good place to find books on your child's reading level and interest level. Books may be fiction or nonfiction. Find something that is interesting to your child.

The purpose of this activity is to promote a love of reading, so have fun! After reading please list the title and author of each book on the list provided and return to school on the first day of class.
